

Popcorn Fun

A POPCORN TONGUE TWISTER

When you pop a pound of perfect popcorn, how many pounds of perfect popcorn does a popcorn popper pop?

GUESS HOW MANY KERNELS

Show your Scouts a small jar filled with popcorn kernels. Then ask them each to guess how many kernels are in it. Give the container of kernels to the Scout who guesses closest to the number without going over. Just remember to count the kernels prior to this event.

POPCORN CHARACTER PICTURES

At a pack meeting, ask the Scouts to use their imaginations and draw silly characters using the popcorn drawing. Use these as decorations around your chartered organization to advertise your popcorn.

POPCORN LOLLIPOPS

Make popcorn balls according to the recipe. Instead of rolling them into balls, push the mixture into cookie cutters of various shapes. Insert a popsicle stick or lollipop stick after removing the cookie cutter.

POPCORN PARTY HATS

Give each Scout a party hat (you can purchase these at any party store). Supply them with several colors of popcorn. Let them decorate their hats any way they want. Then have a popcorn party.

POPCORN STRING BIRD FEEDERS

Give each boy a piece of dental floss or fishing line equal to his height. Let him string three-day-old popcorn until the string is full. Let him hang it outside on a tree or a bush near the window so he can watch the birds enjoy their popcorn treat.

A POPCORN STORY

“Popper the little kernel burst from the popcorn popper into outer space....”
Everyone adds a line to continue the story.

POPCORN SNOWMEN

Stack three popcorn balls on top of each other. Let the Scouts decorate them with small candies, etc. These are great for winter parties.

POPCORN LOLLIPOPS

Make popcorn balls according to the recipe. Instead of rolling them into balls, push the mixture into cookie cutters of various shapes. Insert a popsicle stick or lollipop stick after removing the cookie cutter.

POPCORN PARTY HATS

Give each Scout a party hat (you can purchase these at any party store). Supply them with several colors of popcorn. Let them decorate their hats any way they want. Then have a popcorn party.

POPCORN STRING BIRD FEEDERS

Give each boy a piece of dental floss or fishing line equal to his height. Let him string three-day-old popcorn until the string is full. Let him hang it outside on a tree or a bush near the window so he can watch the birds enjoy their popcorn treat.

SONGS

Here We Go To Sell Trail's End Popcorn

Tune: The Old Gray Mare

Here we go to sell Trail's End Popcorn,
Sell Trail's End Popcorn, sell Trail's End Popcorn.
Here we go to sell Trail's End Popcorn,
To help support our Scouts.
We support our Packs and Troops,
We support our Packs and Troops,
Here we go to sell Trail's End Popcorn,
To help support our Scouts.

My Popcorn Sales

Tune: My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean

Each time when I go out to sell popcorn,
I wear my Scout uniform.
I smile and treat people politely,
Man, do I sell lots of corn!

(chorus)

Trail's End, Trail's End, Each day I sell more and more.
Trail's End, Trail's End, I sold more than the day before.

The popcorn is mighty delicious,
It comes in pails, boxes and tins.

It practically sells itself,
I just provide the cute grins!

(chorus)

Trail's End, Trail's End, Each day I sell more and more.
Trail's End, Trail's End, I sold more than the day before.

The Popcorn Song

Tune: Dreidel

I made a little popcorn,
I make it everyday
Oh, popcorn, popcorn, popcorn
Oh, popcorn is OK.

Cub Scouts sell it every year
It comes in boxes or in cans
Cub Scouts sell it did you hear
So grab it all in your hands.

Oh popcorn, popcorn, popcorn
I made you buttered
I made you plain
And just about every way.
